2024 REVIEW

2024 Trails Update

Photography day to help promote shared trail etiquette
June 2024, Lord Hill Regional Park

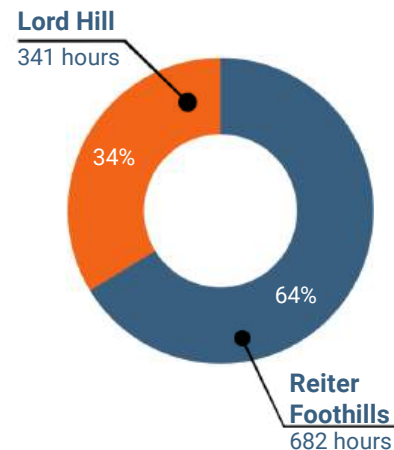

Yearly Highlights

- Medusa trail rebuild completed and opened at Reiter Foothills
- Work parties restarted at Lord Hill under Snohomish County's new volunteer system
- Rogue Knight armoring projects and reroutes completed for better wet weather riding at Lord Hill with more to come
- Boogeyman trail approved for rebuild and work started at Reiter Foothills
- Planning, scouting and advocacy work for potential bike park(Three Lakes Hill near Monroe) as part of Snohomish County Park's Mountain Bike Study

1000+ Trailwork Hours

2024 was our second year of trailwork since formalizing as a non-profit. We've seen many new faces coming out from Everett to Index which was the main driver for the 42% increase of volunteer hours compared to our first year. Trailwork at Lord Hill has also gotten much more streamlined which has helped get more work parties organized throughout the year.

Thanks to everyone who came out and got dirty for a dig day this year!

50+ Advocacy Hours

Hikers, hunters, foresters, tribes, conservationists and many others share a vested interest on the public lands where we recreate.

We've spent time this year in working groups, public processes and get togethers with other recreational users to teach and learn so we can all work best together. SnoCo's Mountain Bike Study, Monroe's Trail Workshop, and a trail education day for National Trails Day with our equestrian friends at Lord Hill were some of the highlights!

Get Involved!

The most important part of our mission is to support a thriving mountain biking community in the Sky Valley, and there's so many ways to do that! Here's some great ways to help the community!

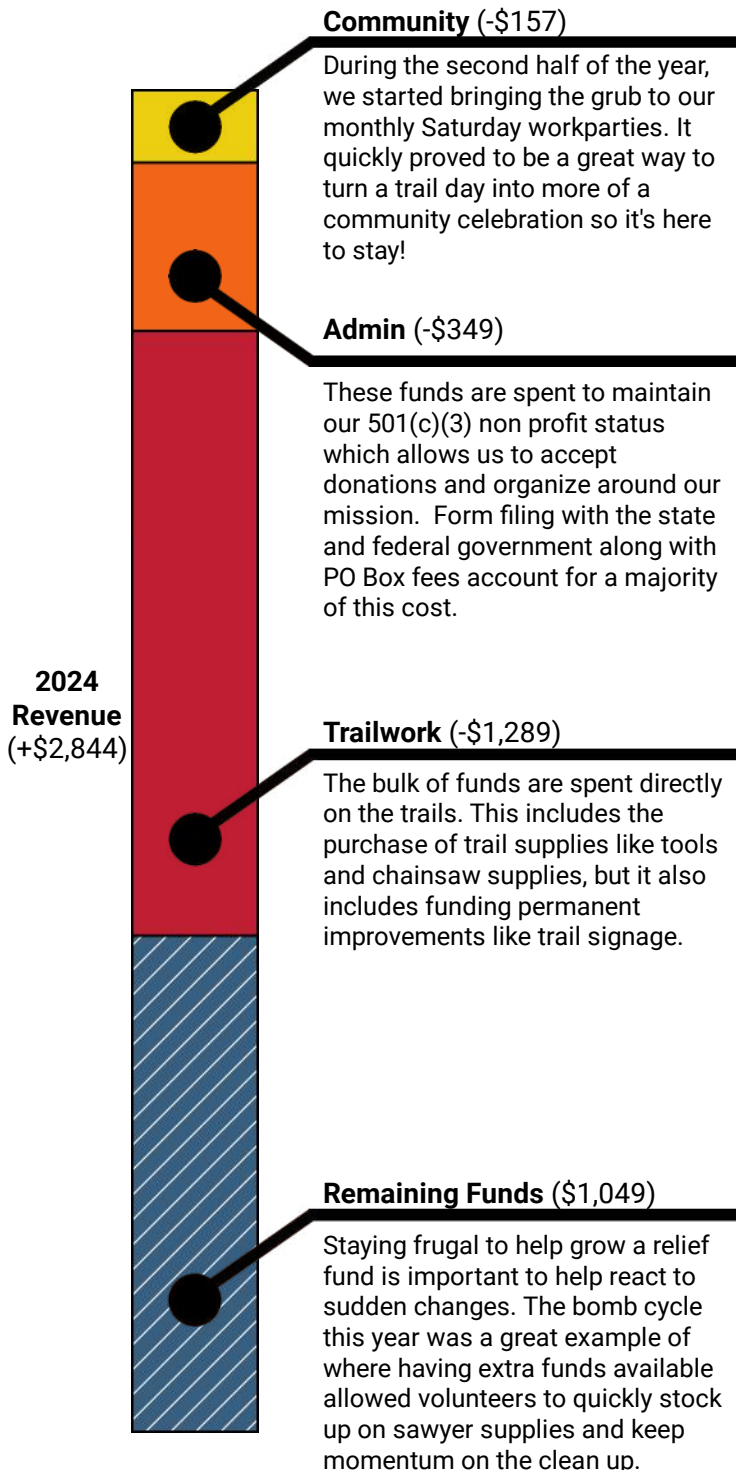

- Join a dig day to make a direct impact!
- Join your local Park Board. Snohomish County and towns like Monroe have Park Boards to help advise on policy.
- Help coach your local team! Both Snohomish and Monroe have youth mountain bike teams. They may need help getting those kids pedaling.

2024 Finances

Sky Valley Singletrack Association is an all volunteer organization with low overhead expenses. Thanks to the generosity and trust from the community who have donated their time or money to help keep the stoke going.

Volunteers install trail signage on Medusa funded by donations.
